IAN PRYOR'S

PACIFIC CREST TRAIL

from MEXICO to CANADA

From March 14, 2016 to August 19, 2016, Ian Pryor, a young man, decided to hike the Pacific Coast Trail (PCT). After high school Ian decided he wanted to travel and had been experiencing life and working in many regions of the world including Alaska, India and Peru. Having time on the Pacific Coast Trail (PCT) to think things over, he came home and started college.

Traveling mostly by himself and alone, sometimes for days on end he persevered. He climbed to Mt. Whitney in the snow, over creeks and rivers, and very narrow paths until he reached Canada. His entertaining speaking ability, accompanied by photos, videos and stories from the trail will keep you inspired and entertained.

This will be a treat for all outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers alike.

Everyone is Welcome to Attend!
